

Megurin

Created 2025.4

The following shows bus operating information starting from April 1st, 2025.

System of "Megurin"

1 Route
Each of the routes follow a circuit in a single direction.
* There may be instances when the routes change without prior notice.
Be sure to check the latest information when making use of the buses.

2 Service Interval
Megurin* run at intervals of 10 minutes ~ 30 minutes.

3 Fare
100 yen for both adults and children
Up to two preschool children may ride for free of charge per one adult passenger.
Silver Passes and other reduced fare systems are not applicable.
PASMO, Suica, and other transportation IC cards are accepted.

4 Economical tickets
● Coupon Tickets: 1,000 yen (a coupon of 11 rides)
● One-day Ticket: 300 yen (One-day unlimited ticket for all routes.)
* You show your 1-day pass when you enter the Shizuoka Memorial Museum, the Japanese Calligraphy Museum, the Asakusa Museum of Sculpture, the Shitamachi Museum, or the Ueno Zoo. (If you are a group of 10 or more people, you will be able to enter the museum as a discounted group fee. (This discount is valid only for the date indicated on the pass).)

● One-month Ticket: 3,000 yen (A commuter pass valid for one month. This is all routes and one ticket allows one person to ride.)
● It will be possible to purchase first time passes 7-days prior to their initial date of usage, and for renewal passes this will be possible from 14-days prior to their initial usage date.
* These tickets above are available at the places marked with ● in the Map right. Coupon Tickets and One-day Tickets are also available inside the buses.

When purchasing dedicated tickets and all-day passes, please pay with cash. Also, change is not provided on the North / South / East-West/Megurin routes, so please come prepared.

5 Transit
You can transit between Megurines at the transit points (only at the stops listed below). When you are going to transit, tell the driver. You will be given a transit ticket. (No cost charged for transit. Transit tickets are valid only for one time use and on the day of issuance.)
